

6th Summer Institute on Migration and Global Health

Berkeley & Oakland, California
June 20 - 24, 2011

Don't miss the opportunity to be part of this incredible professional and personal experience.

Registration Deadline: June 3, 2011
Space is limited!

REGISTER
NOW!

Keynote speaker:

Mexico's Secretary of Health
Dr. José Angel Córdova

Representation from:

The World Health Organization

International Organization for Migration

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México

Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla

Distinguished professors from all University of California campuses

The event will be in English. For more information and on-line registration please visit:

www.regonline.com/summerinstitute2011

What

A unique international and multidisciplinary approach to the study of migration and global health for researchers, faculty, graduate students and health care professionals.

When

June 20 - 24, 2011

Where

First day:

University of California at Berkeley, Alumni House

Following days:

The California Endowment
Oakland Conference Center
1111 Broadway, 7th Floor
Oakland, California 94607

Fees

Professionals: $450
Students: $290