I. ORGANIZATIONAL AND OTHER MATTERS

A. States parties to the Convention

1. On 29 April 2005, the closing date of the second session of the Committee on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families, there were 29 States parties to the International Convention on the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families. The Convention was adopted by the General Assembly in resolution 45/158 of 18 December 1990 and entered into force on 1 July 2003, in accordance with the provisions of its article 87, paragraph 1. A list of States that have signed, ratified or acceded to the Convention is contained in annex I to the present report.

B. Meetings and sessions

2. The Committee held informal meetings from 11 to 15 October 2004, in order to discuss the development of guidelines for the initial reports of States parties. The report of the informal meeting is contained in annex II to the present report.

3. The Committee held its second session at the United Nations Office at Geneva from 25 to 29 April 2005. The Committee held nine plenary meetings (CMW/C/SR.10-18). The provisional agenda, contained in document CMW/C/2005/1, was adopted by the Committee at its 10th meeting.

4. The second session was opened by the representative of the Secretary-General. At the 14th meeting, on 27 April 2005, the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, Ms. Louise Arbour, addressed the Committee.

C. Membership and attendance

5. All members of the Committee attended its informal meetings. Mr. Azad Taghizade did not participate in the second session of the Committee. The list of the members of the Committee, together with an indication of the duration of their terms of office, appears in annex III to the present report.

D. Future meetings of the Committee

6. At its 18th meeting, on 29 April 2005, the Committee decided to request the Secretary-General to arrange two sessions for the Committee in 2006, one in April/May and one in November/December. One session would be of two weeks' duration and the other of one week's duration, in order to facilitate the consideration of reports by the Committee. This arrangement would replace a single three-week session, which had initially been programmed in the budgetary estimates prepared for the 2006-2007 biennium. In accordance with rule 19 of the Committee's provisional rules of procedure, the Secretary-General prepared and circulated to the Committee's members a written estimate of the costs involved in the decision (see annex IV). The sessions of the Committee will be held at the United Nations Office at Geneva.

E. Participation in inter-committee meeting

7. The Committee designated its Chairperson, Mr. Prasad Kariyawasam, and two of its members, Mrs. Ana Elizabeth Cubias Medina and Mr. Abdelhamid El Jamri, to participate in the fourth inter-committee meeting, to be held from 20 to 22 June 2005.

F. Promotion of the Convention

8. In accordance with the request of the Committee formulated during its informal meetings, at the 16th meeting, on 28 April 2005, the Secretariat made a Power Point presentation on the provisions of the Convention and the work of the Committee. This presentation will be available to the members of the Committee in order to assist them in their activities to promote the Convention.

9. At its 17th meeting, on 28 April 2005, the Committee decided to hold at its third session a day of general discussion on the topic "Protecting the rights of all migrant workers as a tool to enhance development". Discussing this topic will allow the Committee to make a contribution to the high-level dialogue of the General Assembly to be held in 2006 devoted to international migration and development (resolution 58/208) and highlight the human rights approach to migration and development.

G. Adoption of the report

10. At its 18th meeting, the Committee adopted its second annual report to the General Assembly.

II. METHODS OF WORK

A. Reporting guidelines

11. At its 10th meeting, on 25 April 2005, the Committee adopted provisional guidelines for the submission of initial reports on which it had agreed at its informal meetings in October 2004. The text of the guidelines is contained in annex V to the present report.

B. Rules of procedure

12. Also at its 10th meeting, the Committee adopted an amendment to its rules of procedure. The amendment, which introduces the provision of summary records of the Committee's proceedings, had been agreed on by the Committee at its informal meetings in October 2004. The text of the rules of procedure as amended is contained in annex VI of the present report.

C. Harmonization of reporting

13. At its 12th meeting, on 26 April 2005, Mr. Kamel Filali, Rapporteur for the harmonization of reporting under the treaty bodies, discussed with the Committee the draft guidelines on an expanded core document and treaty-specific targeted reports and harmonized guidelines on reporting under the international human rights treaties (HRI/MC/2004/3). The Committee agreed in principle that the guidelines on an expanded core document and treaty-specific reports were the way forward in order to harmonize and simplify reporting. Meanwhile, the Committee welcomed the submission by States parties of simple reports, preferably based on the reporting guidelines adopted by the Committee. The Committee's reporting guidelines include a reference to the expanded core document and States parties may thus wish to use the option of the expanded core document and treaty-specific report. In this connection, the Committee emphasized that the harmonization of the working methods of the treaty bodies should not prevent each treaty body from retaining its core competence.

D. Working methods in relation to the consideration of reports

14. The Committee agreed that it would in principle follow the practices established by other treaty bodies in the consideration of States parties' reports. In particular, the Committee agreed that it would appoint two country rapporteurs for each initial report and adopt a list of issues, which would be sent to the State party concerned one session prior to the session at which the report would be considered. The Committee would invite the State party to respond to the list of issues in writing, which could be complemented by oral information during the consideration of the report in the presence of the State party's delegation. The Committee would request States parties to ensure an appropriate composition of its delegation in order to allow for a meaningful dialogue with the Committee.

15. The Committee further agreed that it would invite contributions from United Nations agencies, intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations, national human rights institutions and other concerned bodies in preparation for the consideration of the report. For this reason, the Committee would also ensure that States parties' reports, the lists of issues and States parties' responses to the lists of issues were publicly available.

E. Terminology

16. The Committee took note of a working paper on terminology prepared by the Secretariat that provided a comparison between the terms contained in the Convention and other relevant international and regional instruments. It requested the Secretariat to keep the document as a reference in the members' files.

III. COOPERATION WITH CONCERNED BODIES

A. Meeting with States parties

17. At its 13th meeting, on 26 April 2005, the Committee held a meeting with States parties to the Convention. The meeting focused on the preparation of the initial reports by States parties, the challenges faced in this respect, and the working methods in considering States parties' reports.

18. Several representatives of States parties welcomed the adoption of the Committee's provisional reporting guidelines and mentioned that they were in the process of preparing the initial report under article 73 of the Convention and in accordance with the guidelines.

19. Several representatives of States parties also raised issues related to the working methods to be followed by the Committee when considering reports. In particular, the usefulness of communicating to the States parties a list of issues before the consideration of the report by the Committee and the importance of a constructive dialogue between Committee members and States parties' representatives were emphasized.

B. Meeting with specialized agencies and intergovernmental organizations

20. At the 14th meeting, on 27 April 2005, the Committee met with representatives of the International Labour Office, in accordance with the special status accorded to the Office by article 74 of the Convention.

21. At the same meeting, the Committee also met with representatives of the Global Commission on International Migration, the International Organization for Migration, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the United Nations Population Fund, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and the World Bank. All the organizations present expressed their commitment to provide the Committee with information relevant to the Committee's task of considering reports. Cooperation in the promotion of the human rights of migrants in general and of the Convention in particular was also discussed.

C. Meeting with other concerned bodies

22. At the 15th meeting, on 27 April 2005, the Committee met with representatives of several non-governmental organizations (NGOs), including some of the members of the International NGO Platform on the Migrant Workers' Convention. The Committee welcomed the launch of the Platform, which will enhance NGOs' contribution to the promotion of the Convention and to the work of the Committee. It commended the contribution that civil society continued to make to the promotion of the ratification of the Convention and its support to the Committee in its task of considering States parties' reports.

23. The meeting focused on the role of NGOs in relation to the consideration of States parties' reports by the Committee. Among the issues discussed were the presentation by NGOs of written submissions prior to the consideration of reports. NGO involvement in days of general discussion and the need to strengthen efforts to campaign for further ratifications of the Convention were also discussed.

IV. REPORTS BY STATES PARTIES UNDER ARTICLE 73 OF THE CONVENTION

24. The Committee noted with concern that it had not yet received any reports from States parties under article 73 of the Convention. It welcomed information provided by some States parties that they were in an advanced stage of preparation of their initial reports. It encouraged States parties to comply with their reporting obligation under the Convention in accordance with the provisional reporting guidelines adopted by the Committee. Annex VII to the present report contains a table showing the dates by which the initial reports of States parties should be submitted.

I. OUTCOME OF THE THIRD INTER-COMMITTEE MEETING AND SIXTEENTH MEETING OF CHAIRPERSONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS TREATY BODIES

2. The Committee welcomed the election of its Chairperson, Mr. Prasad Kariyawasam, as chairperson of the third inter-committee meeting and the sixteenth meeting of chairpersons of human rights treaty bodies, and took note with interest of the report of the meetings. The Committee also took note of the secretariat's report containing the draft guidelines on an expanded core document and treaty-specific targeted reports and harmonized guidelines on reporting under the international human rights treaties (HRI/MC/2004/3) and decided to comment on this report at its next formal session in 2005, in time for the next inter-committee meeting.

II. PROVISIONAL GUIDELINES FOR REPORTING BY STATES PARTIES TO THE CONVENTION

3. The Committee discussed its reporting guidelines while keeping in mind the need to streamline reporting under the different United Nations human rights treaties as well as the desirability of an expanded core document. It met with representatives of the International Labour Organization (ILO), who provided guidance to the Committee based on their vast experience with reporting under the ILO conventions. The Committee also took note of guidelines adopted by other human rights treaty bodies.

4. The Committee invited the International Catholic Migration Commission to give a presentation of a study which it had carried out together with the non-governmental organization "December 18" on how other human rights treaty bodies address the issue of migrant workers in their concluding observations.

5. At the end of its meeting, the Committee agreed to adopt the provisional guidelines for the presentation of initial reports by States parties. It requested the secretariat to transmit the guidelines to all States parties and to encourage States parties to use them when preparing their initial report. At the same time, the Committee decided that those States parties whose initial reports were already in preparation at the time of transmittal of the guidelines, be encouraged to complete and submit their reports to the Committee even though they had not been prepared in conformity with the guidelines.

III. AMENDMENT TO THE COMMITTEE'S RULES OF PROCEDURE

6. The Committee decided to adopt at its next formal session the following text, to be inserted in its provisional rules of procedure:

(a) The Secretary-General shall provide the Committee with summary records of its proceedings, which shall be made available to the members in English, French and Spanish;

(b) Summary records are subject to correction, to be submitted to the secretariat by participants in the meetings in the language in which the summary record is issued. Corrections to the record of the meetings shall be consolidated in a single corrigendum to be issued shortly after the end of the session concerned;

(c) The summary records of public meetings shall be documents for general distribution unless, in exceptional circumstances, the Committee decides otherwise;

(d) Sound recordings of the meetings of the Committee shall be made and kept in accordance with the usual practice of the United Nations.

IV. PROMOTION OF THE CONVENTION

7. The Committee discussed ways and means of promoting the Convention and was mindful of the importance of maintaining the independence and credibility of the Committee.

8. Members made, inter alia, the following suggestions:

Representatives of regional organizations and mechanisms should be invited to attend the Committee's meetings;

A standard Power-Point presentation on the Convention and the Committee should be prepared in English, French and Spanish, for use by all members;

The Committee should work closely together with civil society in the promotion of the Convention;

Members of the Committee should participate in meetings and fora on issues of migration and may consider distributing work among themselves by geographical zones;

A common e-mail address should be created in order to facilitate continuous communication between members;

Members may consider contacting their Governments in order to encourage them to approach neighbouring States to promote ratification of the Convention;

Media could be contacted in order to help promote the Convention;

The Chairperson should contact the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in order to increase the role of the Office in raising awareness about the Convention and promoting its ratification as well as to explore ways of increasing resources for the work of the Committee.

9. The Director-General of the International Organization for Migration, the Executive Director of the Global Commission on International Migration, and the representative of the International Labour Organization shared their views and ideas on the promotion of ratification of the Convention with the Committee and informed the members about the activities undertaken by their respective organizations relevant to the work of the Committee.

10. The Committee also had an exchange of views with non-governmental organizations on their activities for the protection of migrants' rights and the promotion of the Convention.

11. The Committee welcomed the willingness of international organizations and agencies and non-governmental organizations to share their ideas about the promotion and implementation of the Convention and looks forward to continuing cooperation with them.

V. FUTURE SESSIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

12. The Committee discussed topics for the agenda of its next formal meeting. The following proposals were made:

- A meeting with States parties on the modalities of reporting;
- Working methods in relation to the examination of reports of States parties;
- Further consideration of the provisional rules of procedure;
- A substantive discussion on terminology.

13. The secretariat was requested to prepare background information on the working methods of other human rights treaty bodies as well as on the issue of terminology.

14. The Committee referred to its request addressed to the Secretary-General during its first session in March 2004 to arrange for two sessions of the Committee in 2005. The Committee indicated the following tentative dates for its sessions in 2005:

ORAL STATEMENT MADE IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 19 OF THE COMMITTEE'S PROVISIONAL RULES OF PROCEDURE CONCERNING THE COMMITTEE'S REQUEST FOR A TWO-SESSION MEETING IN 2006

1. This statement is made in accordance with rule 19 of the Rules of Procedure of the Committee on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families.
2. The Committee would decide to request the Secretary-General to arrange two sessions for the Committee in 2006, one session of a two-week duration and the other of a one-week duration. This arrangement would replace a three-week session, which has been included in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2006-2007.
3. The arrangement with two sessions in 2006 would result in additional requirements for travel of the Committee members. No provisions have been made for these requirements in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2006-2007. It is estimated that additional requirements would amount to US$ 36,800 under Section 23, Human Rights.
