LA FUNCIÓN DE LA OIM EN LA PROMOCIÓN
DE LOS DIÁLOGOS REGIONALES SOBRE MIGRACIÓN

LA FUNCIÓN DE LA OIM EN LA PROMOCIÓN DE LOS DIÁLOGOS REGIONALES SOBRE MIGRACIÓN

1. La gestión de la migración sigue siendo una prerrogativa soberana. No obstante, los Estados reconocen con mayor frecuencia que los esfuerzos a nivel nacional deben verse complementados por esfuerzos cooperativos internacionales. A raíz de ello, se han desarrollado mecanismos de consulta regional en todo el mundo que forman parte de las perspectivas de gestión de la migración.

2. Los foros de consulta regional congregan a representantes de Estados, organizaciones internacionales y, cuando quiera que sea posible, organizaciones no gubernamentales (ONG) a fin de deliberar sobre cuestiones migratorias regionales de manera cooperativa. Dado su carácter informal y no obligatorio, estos procesos consultivos sirven para sentar las bases con miras a la definición de orientaciones y direcciones comunes de cara a la migración y, en algunos casos, a las políticas regionales.

3. La OIM viene desempeñando un papel activo en los mecanismos de consulta regional desde 1996, cuando se establecieron varios procesos tales como Regional Conference to Address the Problems of Refugees, Displaced Persons, Other forms of Involuntary Displacement and Returnees in the Countries of the Commonwealth of Independent States and Relevant Neighbouring States (Conferencia sobre la CEI) en Europa, la Conferencia Regional sobre Migración (CRM o “Proceso de Puebla”) en las Américas y el Proceso de Manila en Asia. Con el correr de los años, la OIM ha seguido ampliando su función de asistencia a los procesos de consulta regional.

4. Dada su función amplia y evolutiva como foro para fomentar la comprensión sobre las cuestiones migratorias<sup>1</sup>, la OIM está enfrascada en fomentar y alentar los mecanismos de consulta. A través de sus oficinas exteriores en todo el mundo, aporta su experiencia para establecer, apoyar y promover foros neutros de debate y cooperación sobre los desafíos que plantea la migración a nivel regional. En algunos procesos regionales, la OIM ofrece asistencia técnica, realiza estudios y difunde información, además de encargarse de la puesta en práctica de proyectos, a pedido de los países participantes.

5. En este documento se describe la participación de la OIM en los procesos existentes de consulta regional sobre migración<sup>2</sup>. También se ofrece información sobre recientes diálogos y seminarios de migraciones que se han celebrado a nivel regional. En el Anexo I encontrarán ejemplos más detallados sobre las actividades de foro que realiza la OIM en cada región. En el Anexo II encontrarán información adicional de cada uno de los procesos regionales sobre migración.

<sup>1</sup> La Constitución de la OIM, en su Artículo 1.1 inciso e estipula: “Los objetivos y las funciones de la Organización serán: ..., poner a disposición de los Estados y de las organizaciones internacionales y otras instituciones un foro para el intercambio de opiniones y experiencias y el fomento de la cooperación y de la coordinación de las actividades relativas a cuestiones de migraciones internacionales, incluidos estudios sobre las mismas con el objeto de desarrollar soluciones prácticas. Véase asimismo la Resolución N° 1055 (LXXII) de fecha 29 de noviembre de 2001, Función del Consejo como un foro para el diálogo sobre políticas migratorias.

Contribuciones de la OIM a los Diálogos Regionales sobre Migración

6. La OIM ha brindado apoyo a los diálogos regionales sobre migración<sup>3</sup> en todas las regiones del mundo. Ello comprende:

- En las Américas y el Caribe: la OIM hace las veces de secretaría para la Conferencia Regional sobre Migración (CRM o “Proceso de Puebla”) y la Conferencia Sudamericana sobre Migración.
- En Europa y la ex Unión Soviética: la OIM ha hecho las veces de secretaría conjunta para la Conferencia sobre la CEI y sigue ofreciendo apoyo técnico en el Seguimiento a la Conferencia de Ginebra de 1996 sobre los problemas de refugiados, personas desplazadas, migración y cuestiones de asilo. También sirve de secretaría conjunta para el Proceso Söderköping.
- En Asia y Oceanía: la OIM ha desempeñado un papel preponderante en el Proceso de Manila que contribuyó a crear; en las Consultas intergubernamentales de Asia-pacífico sobre refugiados, personas desplazadas y migrantes (APC) y recientemente en el Proceso de Bali.
- En África: la OIM hace las veces de secretaría para el Diálogo sobre Migración para África Meridional (MDSA) y el Diálogo sobre Migración para África Occidental (MIDWA).

7. A nivel interregional, la OIM ofrece un foro a los países de origen, tránsito y destino para examinar principios y medios comunes de cooperación a fin de encauzar las corrientes migratorias, por ejemplo, el Diálogo 5+5 sobre Migración en el Mediterráneo Occidental y el Proceso por pequeños grupos. La OIM también contribuye a otros procesos interregionales tales como las Consultas intergubernamentales sobre asilo, refugiados y políticas migratorias en Europa, América del Norte y Australia (IGC) a través del intercambio de información con los Estados participantes.

8. Además de ofrecer un continuo apoyo a los procesos de consulta regional existentes, recientemente la OIM organizó varias reuniones, a pedido de los gobiernos, sobre cuestiones migratorias de interés para sus regiones. Ello comprende la Consulta ministerial sobre migración laboral en Asia para los países de envío, el Seminario internacional sobre migración irregular y seguridad en la región del Mar Negro y la Conferencia sobre la migración árabe en un mundo globalizado. Estas conferencias tienen el potencial de ser desarrollados como procesos en curso, si los Estados participantes así lo deciden durante las reuniones de seguimiento.

9. Al tiempo que promueve y apoya estos procesos, la OIM trabaja con diversos interlocutores para fomentar la colaboración a fin de encarar las cuestiones migratorias. Por ejemplo, conjuntamente con el Programa Internacional sobre Migraciones (PIM) y otros, la OIM ha colaborado con los órganos regionales existentes que se centran en la integración económica<sup>4</sup> tales como la Comunidad del África Meridional para el Desarrollo (CODAM) a fin de establecer el MIDSA y con la Comunidad Económica de Estados de África Occidental (CEDEAO) para crear el MIDWA. Asimismo, la OIM trabaja en estrecha colaboración con los órganos regionales de las Naciones Unidas y otros organismos en la puesta en práctica de proyectos en el marco de los procesos de consulta regional.

10. Las contribuciones de la OIM a los diálogos de migración regional varían según la naturaleza de la solicitud de los Estados participantes y la etapa del proceso. La labor de la OIM puede ir desde la asistencia para crear un foro de debate a otra más operativa y técnica. Las funciones principales comprenden:

- Funciones de secretaría – En cooperación con los gobiernos de la región, la OIM contribuye al desarrollo del marco de consulta regional. Las funciones de la secretaría comprenden el suministro de orientación estratégica, la asistencia a gobiernos en la elaboración de un orden del día y la preparación de un plan de acción. En el marco del proceso, la OIM ofrece asimismo asistencia logística y administrativa a diversas reuniones ministeriales y viceministeriales, grupos de consulta regional o seminarios técnicos. La OIM puede ofrecer financiamiento junto con los países de acogida u otras organizaciones. Asimismo, la OIM ofrece aportaciones substanciales a través de su participación y ponencias en diversas reuniones. En algunos procesos, la OIM se encarga del mantenimiento de una página de Internet para el intercambio de informaciones entre los miembros.
- Investigación y difusión de información – A fin de contribuir a fomentar la comprensión común de las cuestiones migratorias, la OIM ha realizado diversos estudios sobre la migración regional, particularmente sobre los desafíos y recientes tendencias migratorias. Al actualizar y ampliar la comprensión de los gobiernos en cuanto a las tendencias y cuestiones migratorias, la OIM ayuda a los países participantes a identificar perspectivas comunes viables de gestión de la migración.
- Fortalecimiento institucional y cooperación técnica – A pedido de los gobiernos interesados de algunos procesos regionales, la OIM consolida la capacidad de los gobiernos de encauzar la migración, particularmente al reforzar y homogeneizar el acopio de políticas, legislaciones y datos migratorios y su gestión a nivel regional. Estas actividades comprenden la organización de sesiones de capacitación, talleres técnicos y seminarios sobre cuestiones migratorias específicas y la asistencia a gobiernos a fin de desarrollar programas de gestión migratoria nacional y de establecer sistemas de información sobre la migración.
- Asociado ejecutor – En varios procesos, se ha solicitado a la OIM que se encargue de la ejecución de proyectos esbozados en los planes de acción que fueron aprobados por los participantes. Además de proveer un foro para que los Estados participantes aborden oficiosamente estas cuestiones, la OIM también realiza proyectos que encaran preocupaciones migratorias específicas, a saber, el retorno voluntario y la reintegración de víctimas de la trata.

Conclusión

11. La OIM, habiendo participado desde hace casi una década en los procesos de consulta regional sobre la migración, se ha encargado de ofrecer a los formuladores de políticas medios para intercambiar información, políticas y experiencias en las diversas regiones del mundo. Ello ha permitido fomentar la comprensión y la capacidad de los Estados participantes de encauzar la migración y ha promovido el establecimiento de una sólida red de estrecha cooperación regional sobre cuestiones migratorias. Desde que empezó a trabajar con estos procesos, la OIM ha acumulado experiencia y ha aprendido enormemente en las diversas regiones, lo que le permite aportar su pericia para beneficio de otros diálogos regionales emergentes sobre la migración.

12. La participación de la OIM en las consultas regionales constituye una oportunidad para fomentar la cooperación sobre temas migratorios amplios con gobiernos, instituciones internacionales y ONG pertinentes. Dado su papel floreciente a la hora de apoyar los diálogos de consulta regional sobre migración en distintas partes del mundo, la OIM se satisface en aportar su pericia y experiencia para ayudar a fomentar la cooperación en la investigación, el fortalecimiento institucional y la realización de proyectos con los interlocutores pertinentes.

13. Los principios informales y el carácter no obligatorio de la cooperación que emanan de los diálogos regionales podrían servir de base para establecer un marco común de gestión migratoria. A través de la ampliación y profundización de las consultas regionales e interregionales, la OIM contribuye a la creación de perspectivas comunes sobre la migración, que pueden servir para promover una mayor cooperación internacional con miras a establecer un marco más amplio para una gestión migratoria más efectiva.

ACTIVIDADES DE LA OIM EN LOS PRINCIPALES PROCESOS DE CONSULTA REGIONAL Y EN LOS DIÁLOGOS REGIONALES SOBRE MIGRACIÓN

AFRICA AND THE MIDDLE EAST

1. IOM and its collaborating partners initiated the Migration Dialogue for Southern Africa (MDSA) in November 2000 in close consultation with the governments of the Southern African Development Community (SADC).<sup>5</sup> A special working group was established that initially included IOM as a lead agency, alongside the Southern African Migration Project (SAMP), the International Migration Policy Programme (IMP), the International Labour Organization (ILO), and the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR).<sup>6</sup> IOM has been asked by the SADC Member States to serve as the secretariat with main responsibility for the overall programme design and logistics management. IOM's role includes convening MDSA forums and preparing follow-up technical workshops and seminars on various migration issues for senior migration officials from SADC members, including: Workshop on Regional Migration in Southern Africa (2000); Workshop on Migration and Border Management (2001); Second Forum on Regional Labour Migration (March 2002); Workshop on Trafficking in Persons in the SADC Region (October 2002); Workshop on Extra-Regional Irregular Migration and Migrant Smuggling To, Through, and From the SADC Region (June 2003); Workshop on Forced Migration, Including Refugees, Externally and Internally Displaced Persons (October 2003); and Workshop/Third Forum on Harmonization of Migration Policies and Legislation (December 2003).

2. Building on an initial IOM/IMP initiative, the follow-up process to the Dakar Declaration (October 2000), established the West African regional consultative process, the Migration Dialogue for Western Africa (MIDWA). IOM's Regional Office for Western Africa and the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) serve as a joint secretariat. In facilitating regional cooperation and assisting governments in the design, implementation, and reinforcement of migration legislation and policies, IOM, in conjunction with ECOWAS, organized the Workshop on International Migration in West Africa: Concepts, Data Collection and Analysis, and Legislation, (30 September to 4 October 2002, Dakar) for the ECOWAS member States. The workshop succeeded in fostering greater dialogue and coordination on migration terminology, data collection and analysis, and migration legislation.

3. Within the framework of the Memorandum of Understanding in December 2000 between IOM and the League of Arab States (LAS), IOM and the LAS, with the support of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), undertook the joint organization of a regional conference. The Conference, entitled Arab Migration in a Globalized World (2 to 4 September 2003, Cairo), provided a forum for Arab decision makers and international experts to discuss their priorities for the formulation of national policies with regard to migration issues in general, and the geographical mobility of human resources in particular, at the national as well as the regional level. The participating States are planning to hold a technical meeting to explore the possibility of a future conference.

<sup>5</sup> Countries usually participate with two delegates from the relevant line ministry/ies dealing with a theme. Since 2003, Madagascar is also invited to participate in MDSA.

<sup>6</sup> At present the Steering Committee consists of IOM and SAMP, but ILO, UNHCR, UNICEF, UNODC, UNOCHA, WHO, UNDP, as well as relevant NGOs and academic institutions attend the meetings according to the theme.

4. Within the framework of the Cooperation Agreement signed between IOM and OAU (Organization of African Unity), IOM is promoting dialogue with OAU/AU (African Union) member States on migration issues, particularly on human trafficking, migration and HIV/AIDS and human resource development including reversing the brain drain. Furthermore, IOM is following up with member States on the implementation of the decisions on the Establishment of a Strategic Framework for a Policy of Migration in Africa adopted in July 2001, and on the Development of Human Resources for Health in Africa: Challenges and Opportunities for Action adopted in July 2002. IOM also participates and presents papers in various regional and subregional conferences in the area of migration and development, HIV/AIDS, peace and human security, and democracy and good governance.

AMERICAS AND THE CARIBBEAN

5. Since the inception of the Regional Conference on Migration (RCM or "Puebla Process") in 1996, IOM's Regional Office for Central America and Mexico, based in San José, Costa Rica, has provided technical assistance and support. It has assisted in the planning, preparation, coordination, and follow-up of each of the annual meetings and the various workshops and seminars. This technical support role was formalized in September 2001 when, at the request of the RCM, IOM supplied the technical, administrative and logistical support necessary to establish the RCM Technical Secretariat. In addition to coordinating meetings, the Secretariat provides institutional support to the Presidency Pro-Témpore (rotating chair of the RCM) and follow-up of RCM activities and initiatives contained in its Plan of Action.

6. IOM has also undertaken studies covering a wide range of subjects within the context of the RCM, including: Combating Irregular Migration and Migrant Trafficking (1997); Development and Migration (1998); Migratory Impact of Hurricane Mitch in Countries of Origin and Destination (1999); Modernization of Migration Management in Central America (2000/2001); individual country case studies on Migrant Trafficking and Smuggling for all Central American countries and the Dominican Republic (2000/2001); and Convergence of Regional Processes on Migration Matters (2001). IOM has also assisted in compiling and maintaining a comparative matrix of legislation and laws of RCM member countries relating to migrant smuggling and trafficking in persons.

7. Furthermore, IOM has provided technical support in the realization of RCM seminars and workshops held on high-interest migration topics such as: Migrant Trafficking (1998); Migrants' Human Rights (1998); International Migration and Development in North America and Central America (1998); Migration, Return and Reinsertion of Migrants (1999); Consular Protection and Assistance (1999); Migrant Women and Children (2000); Modernization of Migration Management and Cross-border Cooperation (2002); Regional Development and the Productive Potential of Remittances (2002); Migration Management and Inter-State

Cooperation (2002); and Development of a Regional Work Plan to Combat Migrant Smuggling and Trafficking in Persons (2003).

8. As a result of the above activities, the RCM has incorporated into its Plan of Action a number of significant projects implemented by, or to be carried out in cooperation with IOM. These include the Pilot Welcome Home programmes in El Salvador and Honduras for returning migrants (begun in 1998 and ongoing); a multi-phased project on Modernization of Migration Management in Central America (2001-2003); the establishment of a Statistical Information System on Migration for Central America and Mexico (SIEMCA/SIEMMES, begun in 2001 and ongoing); Reintegration and Assistance to trafficked street children from Central America (initiated 2003); and a Pilot Project to establish a shelter for victims of Trafficking (initiated 2003).

9. The South American Conference on Migration, initiated in Lima in 1999, is also inextricably linked to the development of subregional, multilateral, and bilateral actions, both in the Andean Community and the South American Common Market (MERCOSUR). IOM, through two of its Missions with Regional Functions (MFR Buenos Aires and MFR Lima), and also through national missions, has played a fundamental role in preparing and funding the three Conferences and the two Technical Consultative Meetings. In addition, it has performed the function of Technical Secretariat to the Conference, becoming a significant support to this dialogue process.

10. During the First Technical Consultative Meeting (Colombia, 2001), the Plan of Action prepared with assistance from IOM was submitted for consideration at the Third South American Conference on Migration in Quito. IOM also organized the Second Technical Consultative Meeting (Paraguay, 2003) in preparation for the Fourth South American Conference on Migration, with the participation of representatives from the ten South American countries involved in the process. The aims of the workshop were to analyse activities carried out, identify problems, and establish priorities for the Plan of Action, adopted at the Third South American Conference.

11. In view of the research component of this process, IOM also prepared documents for submission at the Third South American Conference on Migration, including: Comparative Analysis of Legal Tools on Migrant Trafficking in South American Countries; South American Observatory on Migration, and the Comparative Analysis of Migration Structures in South America; Proposal Model for the Modernization of Migration Management and the Conclusions of the Forum, Education for Migration, which was jointly organized by IOM and the Organization of Iberoamerican States in August 2001.

ASIA AND OCEANIA

12. In cooperation with the Government of the Philippines, IOM organized the first Seminar on Irregular Migration and Migrant Trafficking in East and South East Asia, held in Manila in December 1996; governments of East and South East Asia, as well as the Pacific, participated. In the following years, governments gathered at annual seminars on irregular migration and trafficking; a series was later called the Manila Process. IOM has arranged a series of meetings, including International Cooperation to Prevent and Better Manage Irregular Migration in East and South East Asia (December 1997, Manila); Irregular Migration and Labour Migration in East and South East Asia during the Economic Crisis (September 1998, Bangkok); and Migration and Migrant Trafficking in East and South East Asia (October 2000, Jakarta).

13. Since 1996, the Intergovernmental Asia-Pacific Consultations on Refugees, Displaced Persons and Migrants (APC) has held seven plenary meetings and a variety of subregional and other meetings. The current APC Coordinator and Secretariat are based in Canberra, Australia (since February 2003). While there are no precise funding arrangements for the APC, the process has, over the years, received considerable financial support from various donors among its members, as well as from IOM and UNHCR. In addition to its financial support, IOM provides substantive input into this round of consultations through participation and presentations at various APC meetings.

14. Participants at the Bali Ministerial Conference on People Smuggling, Trafficking in Persons and Related Transnational Crime (Bali Conference), convened on 26 to 28 February 2002 and on 28 to 30 April 2003 respectively), recognized the value of IOM and invited IOM to support the Bali Process. IOM plays a supporting role in facilitating the work of the two ad hoc Experts Working Groups and other activities of the Bali Process. Under the overall coordination of the Regional Office in Bangkok, IOM's network across the region of 20 national missions have assisted the 38 participating countries in the Bali Conference to contribute to and meet objectives set by the two Ministerial Conferences through providing secretarial, technical and logistical support. IOM has established and maintained a Bali Process web site<sup>7</sup> to facilitate the effective and timely exchange of information among the participating countries.

15. In response to requests from several Asian labour-sending countries,<sup>8</sup> IOM organized the Labour Migration Ministerial Consultations for Countries of Origin in Asia (1 to 2 April 2003, Colombo), hosted by the Government of Sri Lanka, as a forum for Asian labour-sending States to share experiences, discuss issues and identify areas for activities. The Consultations focused on three thematic areas: (1) protection of migrant workers and services to migrant workers; (2) optimizing the benefits of organized labour migration; and (3) institutional capacity-building and inter-State cooperation. IOM will also assist in the preparations for the next Ministerial Consultation, which will be held in April 2004 in the Philippines.

EUROPE, THE FORMER SOVIET UNION AND CENTRAL ASIA

16. The 1996 CIS Conference in Geneva adopted a Programme of Action focusing on four broad thematic areas: (1) international protection for vulnerable groups (refugees, internally displaced persons (IDPs), illegal migrants, formerly deported persons and ecological migrants); (2) migration management, including combating irregular migration and trafficking; (3) the promotion of NGO/civil society participation in migration processes; and (4) addressing legislative and implementation gaps. IOM, as designated lead agency for follow-up in migration management and counter-trafficking, has been active in helping countries in the region work on the issues identified in the Programme of Action, notably through its Capacity-Building in Migration Management Programme (CBMMP) which has been implemented in Azerbaijan, Armenia, Georgia, Ukraine, Belarus, Republic of Moldova, Turkmenistan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan and Tajikistan. These programmes include organizing research studies and workshops on migration policy, migration legislation, border management, document examination, visa policy, migration data collection, counter-trafficking and labour migration.

17. The IOM Technical Cooperation Centre (TCC) for Europe and Central Asia was established in Vienna to assist IOM Field Offices in designing and implementing programmes, particularly in the countries of the Former Soviet Union involved in the 1996 Conference. In cooperation with experts from the Danish Immigration Service, the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE)/the Office of Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR), and the IGC, the IOM TCC is currently coordinating the development of a model for the collection, application and sharing of migration-related data among Eastern European and Central Asian States, as was requested at the July 2002 Workshop on Organizational Structures, Collection and Sharing of Migration-Related Information held in Prague. IOM TCC has also concluded a regional assessment of legislative frameworks in counter-trafficking in each of the CIS countries.

18. Building on and complementing previous efforts under the framework of the Budapest Process to combat trafficking and provide assistance and protection to victims, especially with regard to health issues associated with trafficking, IOM and the Embassy of the United States of America in Budapest, with the sponsorship of USAID, organized the Regional Conference on Public Health and Trafficking in Human Beings in Central, Eastern and South East Europe (19 to 21 March 2003, Budapest)<sup>9</sup> to address in particular sexually-transmitted infections and re-emerging infectious diseases, psycho-traumatization, physical and emotional abuse, and to provide recommendations and guidelines on effective health/public health practices. The final result of the Conference is the Budapest Declaration, which builds on and complements previous efforts to combat trafficking and provide assistance and protection to victims, especially with regard to health and public health issues associated with trafficking.

19. Within the context of the increased significance of migration in the Black Sea and the Balkan regions, IOM and the Government of Romania jointly organized the International Seminar on Irregular Migration and Security in the Black Sea Region (11 to 14 March 2003, Bucharest). The seminar brought together national migration experts from 17 countries in the region,<sup>10</sup> including representation from the three key regional organizations: the Black Sea Economic Cooperation, the Southeast Europe Cooperation Initiative and the South-East Europe Cooperation Process. The seminar focused on irregular migration and its link with security <sup>9</sup> The Conference brought together public health and counter-trafficking officials representing Albania, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Hungary, Poland, Republic of Moldova, Romania, Serbia and Montenegro (including representatives of Kosovo), Slovakia, Switzerland, The former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Ukraine, the United States of America, international organizations, intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations and academic institutions.

<sup>10</sup> All 17 countries participating in the seminar are IOM Member States (Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Bulgaria, Croatia, Georgia, Greece, Hungary, Republic of Moldova, Romania, Serbia and Montenegro, Slovenia and Ukraine) or IOM observer States (Bosnia and Herzegovina, Russian Federation, the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia and Turkey).

matters in the Black Sea region, and provided an opportunity for the participating States, organizations and institutions to hear from experts, share ideas, and plan further cooperation.

20. Although not strictly characterized as regional processes, IOM's involvement in the Migration, Asylum, Refugees Regional Initiative (MARRI) and the Stabilisation and Association Process (SAP) is worth noting in view of the role of both forums in addressing migration issues.

21. IOM offers support to the Secretariat of the Migration, Asylum, Refugees Regional Initiative (MARRI) of the Stability Pact for South Eastern Europe. One senior IOM official has been seconded to the MARRI Secretariat. The MARRI Programme of Action aims to create a better management of, and sustainable solutions to, the problems of migration, asylum and refugee return in the Western Balkans.

22. The Stabilisation and Association process (SAP) is the policy framework of the European Union for its relations with the countries of the Western Balkans. IOM's primary role in SAP is to facilitate regional cooperation and dialogue on migration through technical cooperation activities focused on transferring skills and knowledge of the European Union (EU) migration acquis to the Western Balkans. This includes the establishment of EU-compatible legal, regulatory and institutional frameworks in the fields of migration, asylum and visa matters, as well as enhancing police cooperation in the campaign against trafficking in human beings. To this end, IOM has cooperated with the European Commission and other interested agencies, including UNHCR, International Centre for Migration Policy Development (ICMPD), the Council of Europe, and various EU Member States and candidate countries, in the implementation of regional projects.

INTERREGIONAL

23. The Secretariat of the Intergovernmental Consultations (IGC) on Asylum, Refugee and Migration Policies in Europe, North America and Australia regularly invites IOM to its various meetings and workshops, upon request by the IGC participating countries. Intervention by IOM includes identifying its policies and strategies on the assisted voluntary return programmes, inter alia, return of qualified nationals, return of rejected asylum seekers, and return and reintegration of displaced persons and other migrants, sharing lessons learned from its programmes, and providing assessment of the current situation on the ground.

24. IOM is currently facilitating a dialogue between the three countries of the South Caucasus and a number of traditional countries of destination in Western Europe, the Cluster Process, to address migration and migration issues of mutual concern. IOM Missions in Armenia, Azerbaijan and Georgia facilitate the effective and focused implementation of the return and reintegration projects within the framework of this process. Working closely with origin, host and transit countries, IOM is responsible for the organization, preparation, facilitation and follow-up of the Cluster Process.

25. IOM is also a key partner in the Söderköping Process, a cross-border cooperation process launched by the Swedish Migration Board and UNHCR in 2001, and joined shortly thereafter by IOM, to promote cross-border dialogue on asylum, migration and border management issues among the countries situated along the European Union's future eastern border. IOM is working in the Kyiv-based Söderköping Secretariat to facilitate information exchange among participating countries, provide expertise and coordinate training on the key issues identified by the participating States, namely best practices in asylum/detention regimes, regional data exchange, compliance with EU migration acquis cooperation in counter-trafficking, return of irregular migrants, strengthening of border controls, and fraudulent document detention. The Third Senior Level Review Meeting took place on 16 to 17 October 2003.

26. In partnership with the concerned governments, IOM provides expertise and coordination support to the migration dialogue developed among the countries of the Western Mediterranean region. Activities consist of the setting up of an informal framework to discuss regional cooperation, national/regional development and economic migration, as well as migrants' integration policies. In October 2002, the first 5+5 Dialogue on Migration in the Western Mediterranean was organized by the Tunisian Government, with IOM's assistance, with the aim of launching a platform for regular, informal discussions in the Western Mediterranean on various common migration issues and their linkages with regional cooperation and development. A final document, the Tunis Declaration, was adopted and follow-up activities recommended enhancing the continuity of a regional dialogue in the Western Mediterranean.

27. With the support of IOM, the second Western Mediterranean meeting was organized in Morocco in 2003. The event allowed participants to discuss follow-up on the Tunis Declaration. In Rabat, the 5+5 Ministers of participating countries approved two documents: Presidency Conclusions and a technical paper, Implementation proposals for the Tunis Declaration. A global and coordinated approach, which mobilizes national resources while benefiting from relevant international expertise (IOM and ILO), is recommended. The third 5+5 Ministerial Meeting will take place in 2004 in Algeria.
