CONCLUSIONS

- Acknowledge the wealth of expertise, knowledge and information of TS
- While exchanges exist between TS, there is a need to increase our exchanges through diverse mechanisms such as
  - Mail group contacts
  - Newsletters
  - Audioconferences
  - The creation of working groups
  - Web sites
- Organize TS meetings by themes

- To address specific issues and to learn best practices of projects supported by TS, including evaluation and successful methodologies used in support of RCP's
- Acknowledge the role of International Organizations supporting TS and RCP's
- To link government official participating in multiple RCP's and similar processes.
- Coordination may be improved by inviting TS to as observers of other processes in the region.
