

IOM • OIM

RESILIENCE THROUGH MOBILITY

DEPARTMENT OF OPERATIONS & EMERGENCIES

MOBILITY AS A TRADITIONAL LIVELIHOOD STRATEGY

Managing fragile ecosystems

Adapting to environmental cycles

Traditional, cross-border routes

MAIN CROSS-BORDER NOMADIC MOVEMENTS

Political borders

Environmental change

Changing land uses

MOBILITY AND LIVELIHOOD INSECURITY

Change of traditional routes

Conflict over resources

Change of lifestyle (urbanization)

Community & cultural disruption

POTENTIAL VULNERABILITY OF MIGRANTS

Reduced local knowledge

Legal status

Reduced access to services/opportunities

Language barriers

Marginalization

ENHANCING RESILIENCE: OBJECTIVES

Facilitating mobility as a livelihood strategy

Prevent negative effects of moving

Maximise the contribution of migration to resilience

THE SECURITY IN MOBILITY PROJECT IN THE HORN

Regional mobility policies

Sustainable ecosystem management

Inter-communal dialogue

Region-wide “strategy for resilience”

FOR MORE INFORMATION

doe@iom.int

<http://www.iom.int>