Six years into the armed conflict in the Syrian Arab Republic, the situation continues to deteriorate. 13.5 million people are in need of humanitarian assistance inside Syria, including 6.3 million internally displaced (IDPs). Nearly 5 million people are living in hard to reach and or besieged areas. In addition over 4.8 million Syrians have taken refuge in the five neighboring countries Lebanon, Jordan, Turkey, Iraq and Egypt.

IOM and humanitarian partners continue to scale up services to meet the challenges posed by this protracted crisis with a particular emphasis on protection, provision of life-saving assistance, as well as early recovery and resilience support to displaced Syrian and host communities inside Syria and in the region.

IOM is appealing to the international community for USD 233,284,316.
