NOAH Multi-hazard Map is composed of a combination of landslide, flood, and storm surge hazards maps. Landslide hazard map identifies areas that may be affected by landslides; floods were simulated at a 100-year rain return scenario, and storm surge simulation was based on maximum storm tide heights of 5 meters.

Data Sources:
- Nationwide Operational Assessment of Hazards
- National Mapping Resources and Information Authority