IOM Minsk

Best regards,

Minsk hosted the side event on combating human trafficking within the 26th Annual Session of governmental agencies, NGOs and business sector.

Basically, the summer camp has become a unique platform for cooperation among UN agencies, participation in the next stages of GCM development. Republic of Belarus on GCM and can be further used by the Belarusian Government during their GCM. National consultations results can help define priorities and form the position of the priorities of the Republic of Belarus and become the basis for the position of the country on migration, 2) forced migration and 3) migration and development.

Participants discussed migration-related issues within three thematic groups: 1) irregular migration, 2) forced migration and 3) migration and development.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs highlighted that it was the first time when the issue of modern slavery was discussed not only with traditional partners but also the first time when the issue of modern slavery was discussed not only with traditional partners but also with new partners.