The New York Declaration

For the first time on 19 September 2016 Heads of State and Government came together to discuss, at the global level within the UN General Assembly, issues related to migration and refugees. This sent an important political message that migration and refugee matters have become major issues in the international agenda. In adopting the New York Declaration for Refugees and Migrants, the 193 UN Member States recognized the need for a

5. MIGRATION RESEARCH LEADERS SYNDICATE

- 32 leading global researchers working on a wide range of migration topics.
- ‘Top three’ reads chosen by members to help inform discussions and negotiations around the GCM.
- The work of the Syndicate will compliment thematic and regional consultative processes.

6. GCM PROJECT BUDGET

- Generous funding commitment to date – USD 3 million in confirmed funding.
- But ongoing need for additional funding contributions from Member States.
- Funding shortfall of USD 4.9 million.
- Contributions particularly needed for IOM support to GCM consultations and GCM staff and office costs in Geneva and New York.

7. IDM AND GMG UPDATE

- First IDM workshop held in New York on 18-19 April 2017.
- Opened by DG and SRSG Arbour; closed by President of the General Assembly and Deputy Secretary General with the DDG, and excellent panelists.
- Some 300 participants, of which 75 people from capitals, and others from NY Missions, Geneva Missions, IOs, CSOs academia and private sector.
- IOM CSO consultant held consultation on the GCM with civil society at IOM NY office on 17 April.
- Next IDM to be held in Geneva on 18-19 July 2017
- IOM & FAO to co-chair GMG in 2018 (GMG Principals' decision on 25 April); IOM and FAO now part of GMG Troika.

8. CLOSING REMARKS

- The GCM presents an historical opportunity to move away from reactive approaches, to look forward to a common future in which migration is safe, orderly and regular, and to determine the concrete steps needed to realize this vision.
- It is by necessity a complex undertaking, involving many different stakeholders, but the end result will be well worth the effort.
- IOM is here to support our Member States as they seize this opportunity.
