(<http://refugeesmigrants.un.org/calendar-events>)

5. A limited number of seats at table will be allocated to International Organizations and entities that have observer status, United Nations agencies and stakeholders (seated on a first-come, first-served basis). Reserved seating at table will also be available for participants wishing to take the floor during the panels. Other participants will be seated in the gallery.
6. States will be given speaking priority. Time permitting other speakers will be invited for an intervention. All interventions will be made from the floor.
7. There will be no pre-established list of speakers. Speaking requests should be raised in the room. Delegations are encouraged to limit their interventions to three minutes.
8. Participants can submit written inputs via email to gcmigration@un.org. Inputs will be uploaded to the website.
9. Requests for side event should be shared with the Secretary-General for the intergovernmental conference (gcmigration@un.org). There is a limited availability of rooms. Information on side events will be made available on the website.
10. All participants will need a United Nations Grounds Pass to attend the meeting. Member States coming from capitals should arrange their Grounds Pass via their missions based in New York.
11. Stakeholders wishing to participate must have applied to attend this session by 15 May. Those approved who do not possess a UN Grounds Pass will receive a special event ticket. Instructions for picking up these tickets will be emailed to applicants approved for attendance. Approved participants must present a national identification card or passport to receive their special event ticket.
