(iii) Key professional staff qualifications and competence for the assignment:

a) Team Leader [15]
b) [Project assistant] [10]

10.5 Technical Proposal shall not be considered for evaluation in any of the following cases:

a) late submission, i.e., after the deadline set
b) failure to submit any of the technical requirements and provisions provided under the Instruction to Service Provider/Consulting Firm (ITC) and Terms of Reference (TOR);

Sf = 100 x Fl / F

Where:

Sf - is the financial score of the Financial Proposal under consideration, Fl - is the price of the lowest Financial Proposal, and F - is the price of the Financial Proposal under consideration.

The proposals shall then be ranked according to their combined (Sc) technical (St) and financial (Sf) scores using the weights\(^5\) (T = the weight given to the Technical Proposal = 0.80; F = the weight given to the Financial Proposal = 0.20; T + F = 1)

Sc = St \times T\% + Sf \times F\%

The firm achieving the highest combined technical and financial score will be invited for negotiations.

12. Negotiations

IOM shall prepare minutes of negotiation which will be signed both by IOM and the Service Providers/Consulting Firms.

12.3 The financial negotiations will include clarification on the tax liability and the manner in which it will be reflected in the contract and will reflect the agreed technical modifications (if any) in the cost of the services. Unless there are exceptional reasons, the financial negotiations will involve neither the remuneration rates for staff nor other proposed unit rates.

12.4 Having selected the Service Provider/Consulting Firm on the basis of, among other things, an evaluation of proposed key professional staff, IOM expects to negotiate a contract on the basis of the experts named in the proposal. Before contract negotiations, IOM shall require assurances that the experts shall be actually available. IOM will not consider substitutions during contract negotiation unless both parties agree that the undue delay in the selection process makes such substitution unavoidable or for reasons such as death or medical incapacity. If this is not the case and if it is established that staff were referred in their proposal without confirming their availability the Service Provider/Consulting Firm may be disqualified. Any proposed substitution shall have equivalent or better qualifications and experience than the original candidate.

\(^5\) May vary depending on the requirement of the Mission; normally, weight assigned to Technical is .80 and .20 for the Financial.

12.5 All agreement in the negotiation will then be incorporated in the description of services and form part of the Contract.

12.6 The negotiations shall conclude with a review of the draft form of the Contract which forms part of this RFP (Section VI). To complete negotiations, IOM and the Service Providers/ Consulting Firms shall initial the agreed Contract. If negotiations fail, IOM shall invite the second ranked Service Provider/ Consulting Firm to negotiate a contract. If negotiations still fail, the IOM shall repeat the process for the next-in-rank Service Providers/ Consulting Firms until the negotiation is successfully completed.

13. Award of Contract

13.1 The contract shall be awarded, through a notice of award, following negotiations and subsequent post-qualification to the Service Provider/ Consulting Firm with the Highest Rated Responsive Proposal. Section IV. Terms of Reference

a) Implementation of reconciliation program

Location: Ninewa and Baghdad Governorates
Duration: 6 months (starting from October 15th, 2019)

TERMS OF REFERENCE (TOR)

Background

Following the defeat of the so-called Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) in December 2017, conflict-affected areas in Iraq witnessed significant waves of return. However, around 1.8 million Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs) are still unable to return for a number of reasons. The fear of retaliation or revenge as a result of generalized accusations against families suspected of affiliation with ISIL is a major factor blocking the return of many of these families. To date, the exact number of these families is still unknown. The large majority of these families are residing in camps across Iraq. Their return poses a number of challenges. First, many families do not possess civil documentation.

Those who are formally accused of committing crimes under the name of the Islamic State need to go through a fair judicial process, and have their name cleared if they are found innocent. Nonetheless, the reintegration of all individuals who did not engage in any criminal activity is still problematic as they are being rejected by their community based on their perceived affiliation or because of the exactions committed by one member of the family. In addition to this social aspect, their reintegration is also conditioned by the rehabilitation of these families as many are female headed households who do not have sources of income. They also suffered from highly traumatic experiences and are in need of psycho-social support. Therefore, their reintegration appears as particularly complex, but if left in isolation, these families are at risk of further marginalization, which could lead to (re)radicalization and a possible new wave of violent extremism.

In response to this complex case, the government had taken the initiative since August 2018 to establish a plan to “Rehabilitate ISIL-affiliated Families”. A draft of this plan was produced in May 2019. The approach adopted by this plan was the one of isolation; all first and second degree suspected ISIL affiliated family members would be brought to live in isolated compounds, with very limited movement allowed, until they are considered “rehabilitated” and able to return to their area of origin. Being isolated and deprived of freedom of movement for being perceived as related to perpetrators is a form of collective punishment which is contrary to the Iraqi constitution and the Geneva Conventions of which Iraq is a signatory. The issue of collective punishment is also a major concern regarding the perception of affiliation with ISIL of certain tribes. Indeed, as several Sunni tribes are considered to have joined ISIS, the members of these tribes are collectively prohibited from returning to their area of origin in several locations in Nineveh governorate. This reveals the need for a comprehensive reconciliation process that will lay ground for enabling the safe return of a large number of IDPs from Nineveh. In June 2019, the Prime Minister ordered the dissolution of the Higher Commission for Coexistence and Communal Peace (HCCCP) – which was responsible for the development and the implementation of the ISIL-affiliated families Rehabilitation Plan – and the National Reconciliation Committee (NRC), and ordered the creation of a new structure: The Coexistence and Communal Peace Committee (CCPC). The new committee has been given a mandate of 12 priorities that includes the safe and voluntary return of IDPs. Therefore, the rehabilitation and reintegration of ISIL-affiliated families has been made as a high priority for the Committee to achieve.

The new committee decided to abandon the first draft of the rehabilitation plan and start the development of the plan from scratch. As a result of IOM’s interaction with the leadership of the committee, the latter expressed its acceptance of IOM’s support in the planning and the design of a new plan addressing the prosecution, rehabilitation and reintegration of ISIL affiliated individuals. On a broader scale, the government is heading towards closing all IDPs camps soon, which poses a risk of pushing return without proper pre-settlements to ensure the safety and wellbeing of IDPs following their return. This will then present a risk for the rise of a new wave of violence and social unrest. These dynamics increases the pressure on all governmental and non-governmental actors working on returns, to ensure the minimum damage possible will result from the government’s direction. In the midst of this complexity, the newly established committee with its fresh mandate, will struggle to provide proper directions and sense of strategic priorities to those actors as long as their mandate is not put into a strategic framework that ensures inclusivity, transparency and accountability measures in addition to ensuring synergies between the different profiles that are sensitive in nature.

Objectives

The overarching objective of the project is to enable governmental actors at the federal level and nongovernmental actors to effectively lead the social cohesion agenda in Iraq. Therefore, the following objectives have been identified:

1. Support the Coexistence and Communal Peace Committee to develop a strategic framework in accordance with the committee’s existing mandate
2. Support the Committee in the design of a plan for the prosecution, rehabilitation and reintegration of ISIL-affiliated families
3. Establish a comprehensive reconciliation process to achieve safe and durable return of IDPs in western and southern Nineveh.

Expected specific outputs to be delivered by the implementing partner

II. Area-specific objectives, as well as thematic and operational requirements of the strategic framework are identified
