

List of Biographies:

	DIMASH QUDAIBERGEN	KAZAKHSTAN	Dimash Qudaibergen is a Kazakh singer and composer. He holds the title of the People's Artist of Kazakhstan.
	CLUB ATLÉTICO PEÑAROL	URUGUAY	Club Atlético Peñarol was founded in 1891, by English, German and Uruguayan employees. It has a long history of supporting migrants.
	AMA K. ABEBRESE	GHANA	Ama K. Abebrese is a Ghanaian actress, television presenter, and film producer. She has received numerous awards for her contributions to African entertainment industries.
	PAUL CHOY	MAURITIUS	Paul Choy is an internationally renowned documentary photographer and writer. He is particularly focused on social justice, culture, and the environment.
	MOUCTAR DIAKHABY	GUINEA	Mouctar Diakhaby has made a name for himself in football, marked by his determination and talent. Of Guinean origin, he grew up in Nantes, France, and now plays for Spanish club Valencia.
	KOFI KINAATA	GHANA	Kofi Kinaata is a musician and songwriter from Ghana, well known for his Fante rap and freestyle, earning his title as the Fante Rap God. He is noted for his lyrical dexterity and humor, mixed with traditional African proverbs in his local language.
	NICOLAS MARIN	ARGENTINA/ ARUBA	Nicolas Marin is an award-winning underwater photographer, activist, journalist, and explorer. Based in Mexico, he has been named one of the 100 youth environmental leaders of the world.
	DŽANAN MUSA	BOSNIA	Džanan Musa is a professional basketball player from in Bosnia and Herzegovina. He currently plays for Real Madrid of the Spanish Liga ACB, securing the EuroLeague title in 2023.
	MIRELA SULA	ALBANIA	Mirela Sula, a renowned member of the Albanian diaspora in the UK, is the CEO and Founder of Global Woman Magazine and Global Woman Club. She is the organiser of the Global Woman Summit and Global Woman Awards.
	MO FARAH	UK/ SOMALIA	Sir Mo Farah, the Olympic gold champion long-distance runner, was trafficked as a child from Somalia to the UK and forced into child labour. Considered one of the greatest runners of all time, he retired from the track last year.