Established in 1951, IOM is the leading inter-governmental organization in the field of migration and works closely with governmental, intergovernmental, and non-governmental partners. IOM is dedicated to promoting humane and orderly migration for the benefit of all. It does so by providing services and advice to governments and migrants.

IOM is committed to a diverse and inclusive environment. Internal and external candidates are eligible to apply to this vacancy. To the vacancy, internal candidates are considered as first-tier candidates.

Context:

Under the overall supervision of the Chief of Mission in Pohnpei, Federated States of Micronesia (FSM) and the direct supervision of the Head of Sub-office in Chuuk, FSM and in close coordination with the Project Officer (Community Resilience) in Pohnpei, the successful candidate will assist in internal administrative processes and internal and external monitoring of civil-society organizations (CSOs), non-governmental organizations (NGOs), and community working groups in the Federated States of Micronesia, contributing to the timely implementation of project activities in accordance with IOM policies, standards, and commitments.

Core Functions / Responsibilities:

1. Assist in administrative duties pertaining to planning and coordinating virtual and in-person meetings with relevant government and non-government partners in Pohnpei, Chuuk, Kosrae and Yap.
2. Assist in the coordination, implementation, monitoring, and timely reporting of programme activities and deliverables to support a smooth project implementation and close adherence to the programme's workplan. Assist in the preparation of reporting and procurement procedures related to the project.
3. Assist to plan, organize and conduct, community outreach, including meetings, workshops, trainings, and/or focus group discussions to build climate change adaptation capacity, including on water and food security, and evacuation shelters.
4. Follow-up the correct and timely completion of required administrative forms in a timely manner in order to facilitate the implementation of program activities in accordance with the programme's workplan.

5. Collect and verify the completion and authenticity of documents, data and other inputs, to the extent possible. Documentation may include but it is not limited to attendance sheets, photo documentation, logbooks, etc.
6. Assist in developing capacity-building trainings on project implementation for CSOs and NGOs. Translate material as necessary.
7. Conduct regular monitoring of Awards implemented across FSM. Directly visit sites in Pohnpei to conduct monitoring and update the Project Officer regularly on progress. Assist in the administrative requirements for accurate monitoring of the program, including monthly reports and Notes for File (NFF).
8. Monitor that NGOs are completing monthly reports and filing receipts as necessary.
9. Strictly comply to IOM's policies and procedures including prevention of sexual exploitation and abuse and promotion of a respectful work environment.
10. Participate in staff development and training process.
