

Regional Training on Migration Management and Capacity Building on Irregular Migration

“Addressing Mixed Migration Flows through Capacity Building in Central Asia”

March 30 to April 1 2015
Almaty, Kazakhstan
Venue: Alatau Sanatorium, Almaty, Kazakhstan

WORKING AGENDA

DAY ONE: 30 March 2015 (9:00 to 18:00)
EXPERIENCE SHARING
Methodology: This day will consist of formal presentations by country government representatives and international organizations with the goal of sharing relevant experiences
9:00- 9:30	Welcoming statements by the hosts and organizers	Mr. Aslan Karzhaubaev, Deputy Chairman of the Committee on Labour, Social Protection and Migration in the Ministry of Healthcare and Social Development of the Republic of Kazakhstan Mr. Dejan Keserovic, Coordinator for Central Asia – Chief of Mission of IOM Missions in Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan, Sub regional office for Central Asia
9:30-11:30	Presentation of agenda, methodology and background to the training workshop	Ms Tatiana Hadjiemmanuel, Deputy Coordinator for Central Asia – Senior Program Manager, Sub regional office for Central Asia

Government of the United States

The regional training workshop is organized within the framework of the project “Addressing Mixed Migration Flows through Capacity Building in Central Asia” funded by the US Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration, Government of the United States (PRM USA)

	Presentation of key findings of the “Mapping on Irregular Migration in CA” IOM Report 2014	Mr. Piotr Kazmierkiewicz, International Consultant/Trainer
	11:30 – 11:45	Coffee Break
11:45-13:00	Brief presentations by representatives of Central Asian countries on updates, successes, lessons and challenges in addressing Irregular Migration	Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan Uzbekistan
13:00 – 14:00 Lunch Break
14:00-15:30	UNHCR presentation	Ms. Rano Saidumarova, RSD Officer, UNHCR Central Asia
15:30-17:30	Readmission EU- MD Experience of MD Government implementing EU – IOM readmission agreement, including cooperation within the EU funded projects on readmission support	Mr. Simion Terzioglo, Program Coordinator , IOM Moldova Mr. Mikhail Voda, Bureau of Migration and Asylum, Ministry of Internal Affairs of Moldova
	18:00 Dinner

Government of the United States

The regional training workshop is organized within the framework of the project “Addressing Mixed Migration Flows through Capacity Building in Central Asia” funded by the US Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration, Government of the United States (PRM USA)

DAY TWO: 31 March 2015
(9:00 – 18:30)

DIALOGUE on SPECIFIC CHALLENGES
(GUIDED DISCUSSIONS)

Methodology: This day will consist of a number of thematic discussion sessions. For each session, discussions will be led by a Moderator and are open to all participants for brief interventions. The goal of the sessions is to identify relevant international practices and gaps on the basis of examples provided by participants. Participants are all expected to contribute to the discussions and are encouraged to come prepared

9:00-13:00 Coffee Break 11:30- 11:45	Session 1: Legal and Strategic Framework International and regional legal norms governing migration: subject and area of application, stakeholders, sources and key instruments, areas of authority and responsibility of states; Irregular migration in CA: terminology, characteristics and factors; nexus between irregular migration, labour migration and trafficking in persons Border and migration control for countering irregular migration within the rule of law; Admission, social, economic and cultural rights of irregular migrants: access to health, education and social services, the law and practice. Responding to irregular migration: strategic, legislative and operational levels Questions and Answers	Mr. Vassiliy Yuzhanin, Regional Project Development Officer, IOM Regional Office in Vienna, Austria Mr. Piotr Kazmierkiewicz, International Consultant/Trainer Moderator for discussion: Ms Svetlana Bekmambetova Senior National Officer IOM Kazakhstan
--	---	--

Government of the United States

The regional training workshop is organized within the framework of the project "Addressing Mixed Migration Flows through Capacity Building in Central Asia" funded by the US Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration, Government of the United States (PRM USA)

13:00-14:00 Lunch
14:00-17:30	Session 2: Return of irregular migrants and readmission agreements
Coffee Break 15:00 – 15:15	Legal aspects of return and expulsion, use of readmission agreements Readmission: necessary institutional and procedural setup, selected practices from EU MSs Organizational/technical aspects, reintegration processes Questions and Answers	Mr. Piotr Kazmierkiewicz, International Consultant/Trainer Mr. Simion Terzioglo, Program Coordinator, IOM Moldova Moderator for discussion: Ms Svetlana Bekmambetova Senior National Officer IOM Kazakhstan
17:30-18:30	Summary of Day 2, Discussion and identification of ways forward	IOM and participants
18:30 Dinner

Government of the United States

The regional training workshop is organized within the framework of the project
“Addressing Mixed Migration Flows through Capacity Building in Central Asia”
funded by the US Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration, Government of the United States (PRM USA)

DAY THREE: April 1 2015
(9:00 – 18:00)

TRAINING: APPROACHES AND METHODOLOGIES FOR ASSESSING RISKS ON IRREGULAR MIGRATION AND ADDRESSING HUMAN RIGHTS OF MIGRANTS

Methodology: This day will consist of presentations, group discussions, case studies and exercises with the objective of:

- Providing concrete tools, and
- Identifying existing and potential programmes that could be implemented to complement existing efforts in the region.

09:00- 09:20	Introduction to training objectives and methodology	Mr. Vassiliy Yuzhanin, Regional Project Development Officer, IOM Regional Office in Vienna, Austria Mr. Piotr Kazmierkiewicz, International Consultant/Trainer Mr. Simion Terzioglo, Program Coordinator, IOM Moldova
09:20- 13:00	Session 3: Border and Migration Control: effective control of border crossings and green borders Challenges in Central Asian region and international experience in combatting irregular migration; Improving border and migration procedures and controls; new technologies; possible international assistance.	Mr. Piotr Kazmierkiewicz, International Consultant/Trainer Mr. Simion Terzioglo, Program Coordinator, IOM Moldova Mr. Vassiliy Yuzhanin, Regional Project Development Officer, IOM Regional Office in Vienna, Austria
11:00- 11:15

Government of the United States

The regional training workshop is organized within the framework of the project
“Addressing Mixed Migration Flows through Capacity Building in Central Asia”
funded by the US Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration, Government of the United States (PRM USA)

Coffee Break	Key principles of integrated/ cooperative border management including inter-agency cooperation and coordination. Regulation of migrant employment, Migrant Workers Rights Questions and Answers
14:00-16:00	Session 4: Methods of preventing the cross border movements of irregular migrants Verification of purpose of travel; forecasting migratory pressure Identification, use of databases, communication and investigation Information gathering, risk assessment and risk analysis methodologies Questions and Answers	Mr. Piotr Kazmierkiewicz, International Consultant/Trainer Mr. Simion Terzioglo, Program Coordinator, IOM Moldova
	16:00 – 16:15	Coffee Break
16:15-17:30	Session 5: A roadmap for follow up	IOM Participants
17:30-18:00	Closing Session	Final remarks by the representatives of IOM and the host Government of Kazakhstan

IOM experts will administer PRE and POST sessions questionnaires in order to improve the development and the organization of similar training events in future.

Government of the United States

The regional training workshop is organized within the framework of the project “Addressing Mixed Migration Flows through Capacity Building in Central Asia” funded by the US Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration, Government of the United States (PRM USA)