MOIA

MAYOR'S OFFICE OF IMMIGRANT AFFAIRS

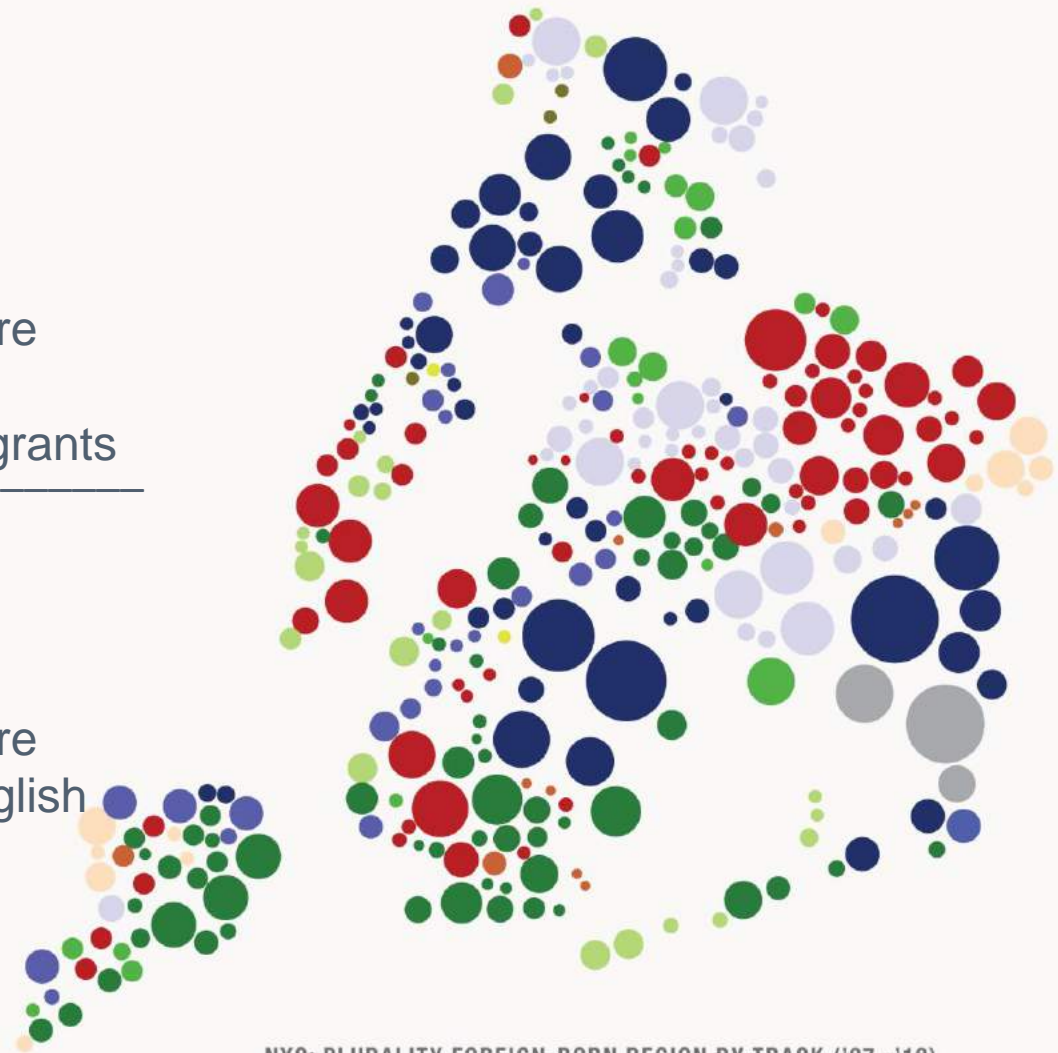

Building on its Charter mandate, the Mayor's Office of Immigrant Affairs promotes the well-being of immigrant communities by recommending policies and programs that facilitate the successful integration of immigrant New Yorkers into the civic, economic, and cultural life of the City.

60%

of NYC residents are immigrants
or children of immigrants

23%

of NYC residents are not proficient in English

NYC: PLURALITY FOREIGN-BORN REGION BY TRACK ('07 -'12)

Immigrant Integration:

IDNYC

- Largest municipal ID program in the nation
- Over 770,000 enrolled
- Included partnerships with cultural institutions all around the city
- Access to financial institutions

Access to Justice:

ActionNYC

- $7.9 million investment in immigration legal services—largest in the country
- Every immigrant New Yorker who is served by ActionNYC will receive a safe and secure consultation of their immigrant legal options

Access to Healthcare:

Direct Access

- In 2014 the Mayor created the Task Force for Immigrant Health
- They found that 63.9% of undocumented people in NYC have no form of healthcare insurance
- The Direct Access program will launch this spring and bring 1000 people coordinated primary care

Strengthening Immigrant Communities:

Immigrant Women's Fellowship

- In 2015, MOIA launched its Immigrant Women's Leadership program
- The inaugural class was made of women from all over the city working with different immigrant communities
- These women became MOIA's Immigrant Cabinet, meeting on a monthly basis
